

DO YOU KNOW....

How to Nominate Yourself or Someone Else for the Holy Trinity Parish Pastoral Council?

In an effort to identify members for the Parish Pastoral Council an identification process to discover and call forth men, women and young adults with the gifts and talents to serve on this collegial body. This discernment process encourages a prayerful and Spirit-driven consideration of how nominees' gifts may best be used to serve the parish community.

This discernment process relies heavily on the participation of all parishioners to identify and nominate potential candidates for service on the Council. Now is the time for you to identify a parishioner you know (perhaps even yourself!) who may have the time, talent, experience and wisdom to serve on this advisory body.

nomination form is completed and submitted to the Pastoral Council. All nominees will be invited to an "Evening of Discernment" on April 16 where they will prayerfully consider together the role they are being asked to fill. At the end of this information-sharing evening, current Pastoral Council members and those who were nominated will participate in a series of ballots to identify the candidates they deem most appropriate to fill the vacant positions. When the evening concludes those newly-elected individuals will be named.

Who can identify and submit a Pastoral Council nomination?

Any registered parishioner who is at least 18 years old can identify and submit a nomination for them self or another parishioner.

How does someone become a member of the Pastoral Council?

First, members of the congregation identify parishioners they would like to serve on the council and ask that person if they would consider being nominated. Then, if they agree, a

Who is eligible to serve as a member of the council?

Any registered member of the parish who is at least 18 years old and who agrees to accept the responsibilities of the position of council member are eligible to serve as a Pastoral Council member.

HOLY TRINITY CATHOLIC CHURCH PASTORAL COUNCIL MEMBER IDENTIFICATION NOMINATION

Name of Nominee: _____

Have you discussed this nomination with nominee? yes no

What gifts/talents do you feel this nominee has? _____

Although not required, it is recommended you contact the person you are nominating to determine if they are willing to accept this nomination.

The nomination form must be returned by March 30 in the collection basket or to the Parish Center.