Assignment due 4/8/09

Your Baptismal name is the name that your parents gave to you on the day of your Baptism. For many people, it is the name that we go by in our day-to-day life. Before our April 8th session, please talk to your parents about your baptismal name. And answer these questions in a one paragraph report

- 1) Why was this name chosen for you by your parents when you were baptized?
- 2) If your name is the name of a saint or Biblical person (or if it is a variation of a saint's name), what impresses you most about this person? If your name is not a variation of a saint's name, than please select any saint whom you admire and answer the same question.

However, when you get confirmed it is time for you to choose your Confirmation name (which must be a saint name). Please take time to research a saint that you maybe thinking about for Confirmation. Once you have found one please write a 2-3 paragraph briefly explaining this saint's life and why you are considering this name for Confirmation.
